

East Boston Neighborhood Health Center Project

Friday – Saturday • July 16-17, 2021 • Virtual

WELCOME

On behalf of the entire Massachusetts General Hospital Department of Psychiatry, we are proud to welcome you to our conference: East Boston Neighborhood Health Center Project.

The importance of early identification and intervention is vital to helping children have the best possible mental health outcomes. This two-day training makes your practice better equipped to manage mild-to-moderate mental health concerns in children and youth. This CME Program is designed to enhance your skills to assess, treat and manage common mental health concerns in children and youth.

Enjoy the program!

TARGET AUDIENCE

The target audience for this event is: primary care and family practice physicians, pediatricians, psychiatrists, nursing professionals, residents, and other mental health, primary care and pediatric clinicians

EVALUATION FORMS/CME/CEU CERTIFICATES

Every participant needs to complete the activity evaluation online to claim CME/CEU credits for this course. Please refer to the Evaluation and CME Information document in this syllabus for more information. We strongly encourage you to complete the evaluation, even if you do not require a certificate. Your comments are important to us as we plan future programs. The link to claim credit is as follows:

<https://lms.mghcme.org/content/EBNHCPjuly21>

Access Code is: EastBoston

QUESTIONS

Opportunity for questions will be provided at the end of each module during the panel discussion. Please write your questions in the chat box on Zoom. Experience has shown that this method is preferable to that of spontaneous questions.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

At the end of this educational activity, participants should be able to:

1. Recognize the presentation, diagnosis, comorbidity, neurobiology, and current treatment options available for individuals with Neurodevelopmental and Disorders of Dysregulated Mood.

East Boston Neighborhood Health Center Project

Friday – Saturday • July 16-17, 2021 • Virtual

2. Assess depression in youth, and evaluate the treatment options for children and adolescents, including an assessment of the black box warning for SSRIs.
3. Differentiate common anxiety disorders and describe their assessment and treatment.
4. Recognize the behaviors resulting from trauma that require treatment, and evaluate the treatment options for children and adolescents
5. Define pediatric bipolar disorder, and provide examples of effective evidence-based therapies

ACCREDITATION

This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the accreditation requirements and policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) through the joint providership of McLean Hospital and Massachusetts General Hospital. McLean Hospital is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

McLean Hospital designates this live activity for a maximum of 7.75 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits[™]. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

REGISTERED NURSES

This program meets the requirements of the Massachusetts Board of Registration in Nursing (244 CMR 5.00) for 7.75 contact hours of nursing continuing education credit. Advance practice nurses, please note: Educational activities which meet the requirements of the ACCME (such as this activity) count towards 50% of the nursing requirement for ANCC accreditation.

Other CE Licenses: Other Providers can claim a Participation Certificate upon successful completion of this course. Participation Certificates will specify the title, location, type of activity, date of activity, and number of AMA PRA Category 1 Credits[™] associated with the activity. Providers should check with their regulatory agencies to determine ways in which AMA PRA Category 1 Credits[™] may or may not fulfill continuing education requirements. Providers should also consider saving copies of brochures, agenda, and other supporting documents

FACULTY DISCLOSURE STATEMENTS

In accord with the disclosure policy of McLean Hospital as well as guidelines set forth by the Accreditation Council on Continuing Medical Education, all people in control of educational content, including speakers, course directors, planners, and reviewers, have been asked to disclose all relevant financial relationships with commercial interests of both themselves and their spouses/partners over the past 12 months, as defined below:

Commercial Interest

The ACCME defines a “commercial interest” as any entity producing, marketing, re-selling, or distributing health care goods or services, used on, or consumed by, patients. The ACCME does not consider providers of clinical service directly to patients to be commercial interests. For more information, visit www.accme.org.

Financial relationships

Financial relationships are those relationships in which the individual benefits by receiving a salary, royalty, intellectual property rights, consulting fee, honoraria, ownership interest (e.g., stocks, stock options or other ownership interest, excluding diversified mutual funds), or other financial benefit. Financial benefits are usually associated with roles such as employment, management position, independent contractor (including contracted research), consulting, speaking and teaching, membership on advisory committees or review panels, board membership, and other activities from which remuneration is received, or expected. ACCME considers relationships of the person involved in the CME activity to include financial relationships of a spouse or partner.

Relevant financial relationships

ACCME focuses on financial relationships with commercial interests in the 12-month period preceding the time that the individual is being asked to assume a role controlling content of the CME activity. ACCME has not set a minimal dollar amount for relationships to be significant. Inherent in any amount is the incentive to maintain or increase the value of the relationship. The ACCME defines “relevant” financial relationships” as financial relationships in any amount occurring within the past 12 months that create a conflict of interest.

Conflict of Interest

Circumstances create a conflict of interest when an individual has an opportunity to affect CME content about products or services of a commercial interest with which he/she has a financial relationship.

The following planners, speakers, and content reviewers, on behalf of themselves and their spouse or partner, have reported financial relationships with an entity producing, marketing, re-selling, or
